How do I become a Life Member?

Life Membership is available to active, alumni and advisory Brothers of the Fraternity. To become a Life Member, a one-time financial contribution of $50 for undergraduates (up until 1 year after graduation) or $100 for alumni is required. The contribution must be accompanied by the attached application.

The benefits of Life Membership

In appreciation of your financial support, you will receive the following:

- Distinctive Life Membership pin
- Lifetime subscription to the Torch & Trefoil
- Life Membership certificate suitable for framing
- Wallet ID card
- Recognition at National Conventions and many local conferences
- The knowledge that the Fraternity's financial stability will benefit from your support

NATIONAL SERVICE FRATERNITY

Dear Brother:

Your interest in the Life Membership program is one important component of the support that keeps Alpha Phi Omega the nation's largest service oriented collegiate organization. Besides being tax deductible, your contribution, in concert with the contributions of thousands of other Brothers, will help ensure not only the stability but also the success of the Fraternity for many years to come.

Because of your dedication, the Fraternity invites you to support our programs of Leadership, Friendship and Service after your graduation. The Fraternity continually is looking for Brothers to serve as chapter advisors, new chapter sponsors, as well as various sectional and regional staff positions.

You can continue your financial support to the Fraternity through our Annual Fund Torchbearer Program, a special gift, or through a planned giving program.

If you would like more information about any of these opportunities, please notify the National Office by completing the information on the back of the Life Membership Application.

Life Membership — An Opportunity for Service

Life Membership in Alpha Phi Omega is an opportunity for members to financially support the long-term stability of the Fraternity. Your dedication to the principles of Alpha Phi Omega through your support of Life Membership also helps to ensure the long-term growth of the Fraternity and development of new programs to help chapters.

The Role of the Endowment

Your Life Membership contribution is held and invested by the Alpha Phi Omega Endowment and provides permanent benefits to the Fraternity for years to come. The independent seven member Board of Trustees works with Alpha Phi Omega's leadership to identify and fund special needs. The income from your investment can be used to provide enhancements to specific Fraternity programs, capital improvements and other long-term goals. The income is also used to offset the cost to the Fraternity of a lifetime subscription for you to the Torch & Trefoil.

The Endowment is a vital component of the stability and growth of the Fraternity. By paying this one time fee and becoming a Life Member, you are taking the initial step to help strengthen our programs of Leadership, Friendship and Service.
