

Alpha Phi Omega

Preparing Campus and Community Leaders through Service

FACT SHEET

- ✠ The nation's largest collegiate fraternity
- ✠ The oldest collegiate service fraternity
- ✠ Nonresidential and open to students in other Greek-letter organizations
- ✠ Founded in 1925 at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania
- ✠ More than 17,000 male and female members at 361 campuses nationwide
- ✠ Cardinal principles:
 - Leadership
 - Friendship
 - Service
- ✠ Student-run chapters design service programs based on local needs.
- ✠ All-volunteer field support to chapters
- ✠ Student members complete minimum service participation requirements
- ✠ Examples of common service projects:
 - Conducting blood drives for hospitals and blood banks
 - Organizing "Relays for Life" for campus and community
 - Building homes with Habitat for Humanity
 - Hosting workshops for local Boy and Girl Scouts to earn badges

For further information, please visit www.apo.org.

- ### -