SUMMER 2005 - SERVE WEEKENDS

This summer Alpha Phi Omega will sponsor four APO LEADS Weekends. All four weekends will be the SERVE program. Interested Members should try to attend one of these informational and most valuable workshops! Be sure to register on-line at www.leadership.apo.org.

This is a weekend experience giving participants an opportunity to learn strategies and skills needed to develop chapter management strategies. This course will focus on small group process where participants develop an actual project plan that can be used by chapters and the Fraternity.

SUMMER 2005 SERVE SCHEDULE

June 3-5	Duquesne University	Pittsburgh, PA
June 24-26	Oglethorpe University	Atlanta, GA
July 15-17	St. Louis University	St. Louis, MO
July 22-24	Univ. of CA, Los Angeles	Los Angeles, CA

Membership Reporting

May 1st Deadlines

- Fall Pledge Class Namesake Nominations
- John Mack Scholarship Applications

If you have not yet done so, submit your Spring Pledge and Active Applications and appropriate fees immediately!

Pledge Fees $20.00 Each
Active Fees $35.00 Each

If you're not sure if these important reporting requirements have been met you may contact Judy Mitchell at chapter.services.dir@apo.org or 816-373-8667 x13.

Spring Youth Service Day

April 15-17, 2005

Membership fees allow the Fraternity to provide materials, programs and assistance to our chapters and members. In addition, no Pledge or new Brother can be added to the membership rolls unless applications and fees are received.

Thank you for taking care of this!

As the school year comes to an end for the summer break don't forget to check and close out your membership and merchandise accounts with the National Office. For any questions or concerns please contact Linda Secrist at accountant@apo.org or 816-373-8667 x12.

SERVE: Serve the Fraternity by Using Management Skills in your Chapter

This is a weekend experience giving participants an opportunity to learn strategies and skills needed to develop chapter management strategies. This course will focus on small group process where participants develop an actual project plan that can be used by chapters and the Fraternity.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Friendship Building:	<input type="checkbox"/> Developing Friendship into the bonds of Brotherhood
Meeting Management	<input type="checkbox"/> Learning different types of meetings and how to best run them
	<input type="checkbox"/> Making Meetings more manageable and effective
Project Management	<input type="checkbox"/> Focus on the SPEED model to develop and execute successful projects
	<input type="checkbox"/> Developing Time Management through Project Management
Delegation	<input type="checkbox"/> Learning the art of have others help with a task you are responsible for
	<input type="checkbox"/> Using Delegation strategies to utilize the whole Chapter
Marketing	<input type="checkbox"/> Developing and managing a positive Chapter image
	<input type="checkbox"/> Learning how to let the world know what you are doing

THE OBJECTIVES OF THIS COURSE ARE:

- To provide a framework for effective chapter management
- To give participants transferable skills that may be used in their careers beyond Alpha Phi Omega.
- To provide future Fraternity leaders with management skills
- To add to the skill sets learned in other APO LEADS courses
- To create a project plan in small groups which can be adapted at the chapter level.
- To practice Project Management skills
- To incorporate the Servant Chapter Organizational function and apply it to the project plan
- To apply the Servant Leadership Characteristics throughout the weekend
- To commit to applying the skills learned in your home Chapter

Wow! SERVE was amazing. It was so cool to see the culmination in SERVE of the previous APO LEADS elements. I feel like I have a much better grasp of what it takes for my chapter to be strong and productive.
