1998 National Convention — Brrrr-iffic!

Although the outside temperatures and wind chills were frigid, the almost 1,800 Brothers inside the Hyatt Regency Minneapolis attending the 33rd APO National Convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota, were warmed by the fires of Leadership, Friendship and Service. This most recent National Convention was a great event. Brothers from around the country participated in the workshops, seminars, dances, banquets, and legislative assembly.

The National Convention is a great opportunity to share ideas, meet new friends, get reacquainted with old friends, and participate in around the clock activities. Pledges, Petitioners, Actives, Staff, Alumni, and friends shared in the spirit of Alpha Phi Omega. Highlights of the convention are featured throughout this edition.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BY JACK A. MCKENZIE, NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Choices

Recently, I traded e-mail with a couple of Brothers about an issue important to their Chapter. As that discussion progressed, I had one of those “light bulb experiences” – a moment when the darkness is lifted from some perfectly obvious and logical point that heretofore had been mysteriously hidden. I thought: “All I can do is give these Brothers information and another perspective. Ultimately, the choice is theirs – and so, for better or worse, will be the consequences.”

Often in life we try to avoid making choices. Either we want “the rules” to be so specific and exact that they cover every contingency and require absolutely no thought to be understood and followed; or we qualify, justify, rationalize and otherwise complicate an issue so much that we deceive ourselves into believing that there are no right or wrong choices.

The problem with both of those approaches is that neither of them works. Choices cannot be avoided. We make them by what we say and what we do. The real question is whether we take responsibility for them or pretend to be their victims.

As your new National President, I promise to do my best to make good choices – to choose not what is easy, but what is right for the Fraternity.

Likewise, I ask the same of you.

As Chapters and as individual Brothers, we face many decisions during a year, decisions that involve fundamental issues of right and wrong, fairness and prejudice, safety and risk. Let us choose to do the right thing, to be open and inclusive, and to protect each other, our Chapters and our Fraternity from harm.

With that commitment, we can move confidently toward our 75th Anniversary Celebration knowing that we have chosen a secure and successful future for Alpha Phi Omega.

Patrick Burke, Alpha Phi Omega National Executive Director and Torch & Trefoil Editor, welcomes your thoughts and comments.

Dear Editor:

We wanted to submit a short article for the National Service Week wrap-up, but it looks like we are about to miss the deadline. I hope you will accept this over e-mail. Also, if you can accept digital photos online, we could e-mail you a photo of our Brothers in action during National Service Week!

*Elizabeth Evenson,
President
Gamma Sigma Chapter,
University of Chicago*

With this issue concentrating on the results of the National Convention, your Chapter submission will make the National Service Week section in our next issue. And, we are just beginning to process digital photos for use in the T&T. – Editor

Dear Editor:

In the Fall 1998 issue of the T&T, I read with interest Omega Gamma Brother Pam Decker's article "Discovering My Heritage Through APO". At the National Convention Awards Banquet in Minneapolis, Brother Decker repeated her story of the discovery that her father had also been a Brother of APO. As an addendum to this story, it might interest Brother Decker to know that just this past semester, an Interest Group has begun the rechartering process on the campus of her father's old Chapter. Theta Kappa Chapter at SUNY - Binghamton has been inactive since 1968, but we now look forward to welcoming them back one day very soon.

*Mike "Spree" Haber
Section 88 Vice Chair
Epsilon Zeta '89*

Dear Editor:

In the Fall 1998 issue of the T&T you published a picture from Eta Chapter at Northern Illinois University. I was a new pledge in the winter of 1972 and I don't know any of the individuals in the picture. Could you have the wrong year? Could it be 1963?

*John D. Kelly
Past Chapter President
Eta '72*

The year was 1965. – Editor

NATIONAL

Minneapolis, MN

One of the grandest traditions of the National Convention is the “Chapter Roll Call.” The Brothers from Iota Tau Chapter at St. Olaf College, get ready to perform.

Over 1,700 Brothers attended the Opening Ceremony of the 33rd National Convention

An added attraction at our last three conventions has been the professional music group the “Main Attraction.” These Honorary Brothers of Gamma Alpha Chapter, University of Washington, have been a major “hit” with all attendees.

At the Opening Ceremony Brothers Kay Hairgrove
Krenek and Past National President Jerry Schroeder share in announcing the “kick-off” of the 75th Anniversary Celebration. Our 75th Anniversary will be celebrated from now until the 2000 National Convention, which will be held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

CONVENTION

December 27-30, 1998

.... At the Fellowship Banquet, Jimmy Bartle Taylor, daughter of "The Chief," Dr. H. Roe Bartle, brings greetings to the delegates. Being able to meet and talk with Jimmy is a special treat for all attendees.

What is a convention without Service! Hosting a blood drive during the convention was one of several projects that provided service or raised funds for the Minneapolis community. Forty-eight pints of blood were donated at the convention.

The Voting Delegates Assembly is the supreme authority of the Fraternity. It is here that the direction of the Fraternity is determined.

..... National Board Member Bobby Hainline helps out at the Fraternity Store, where merchandise and supplies were readily available to all delegates.

National Distinguished Service Awards Presented in Minneapolis

One of the highlights of the National Convention is the presentation of the National Distinguished Service Award, which is the Fraternity's highest award. It is deservedly given to Brothers who have provided service to the Fraternity that is marked by both the time and the range of activities in which they have been involved. At the 1998 National Convention the National Distinguished Service Award was given to two recipients. Past President Gerald A. Schroeder noted that both of the honorees in their lives reflected our principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service at the highest levels.

JOHN C. "JACK" JADEL was initiated into the Zeta Kappa Chapter at Bowling Green University, Bowling Green, Kentucky, in 1950. After graduation he served in the United States Army in Korea. He recently retired as President of AKZO America in Chicago. A distinguished Eagle Scout, Jack has served many civic service organizations over the years, including the Chicago Crusade of Mercy, The Willamette United Way, and the Boy Scouts of America.

With the Boy Scouts, Jack served at the local, regional and national levels as a volunteer. He was President of the National Eagle Scout Association from 1988 to 1990.

In 1995 through the vision and generosity of Brother Jadel the Alpha Phi Omega Youth Service Program was founded. This program provides unique opportunities for our Chapters to explore and provide service to youth at risk. In three years over $10,000 from this program has been awarded to Chapters around the country.

In 1997, Jack was elected to serve as a Trustee of the Alpha Phi Omega Endowment Fund. His expertise in fund raising and fund management have added another facet to Jack's service to the Fraternity.

KAY HAIRGROVE KRENEK began her distinguished career as a Pledge in 1979 at Beta Sigma Chapter, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas. Along the path Kay served at the Chapter and Regional level holding various offices, and nationally she chaired the Publications Committee. In 1986 she was the first woman elected to the National Board of Directors and served two terms as National Service Chair. She served on the Architectural Committee that designed our National Headquarters in Independence, Missouri, and chaired the Dedication Committee for the National Office. She is currently a member of the 75th Anniversary Celebration Committee.

Kay has been an integral player in the important events and direction of the Fraternity. If you mention the APO History Book, Kay was instrumental in the publication. If you mention the 75th Anniversary logo, she designed it. If you mention the current design of the Torch & Trefoil, she again has been instrumental in its development. For 20 years Kay has continued the principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service in her actions and life. She has given back to the Fraternity and the Fraternity has many reasons to be thankful for Brother Kay Hairgrove Krenek.

- Single-gender Chapters chartered before the 1976 National Convention may remain single-gender Chapters unless they become inactive or coeducational.
- All Petitioning Groups seeking to charter or re-charter will be and remain co-educational.
- Although we believe our program of Leadership, Friendship, and Service is unique at collegiate institutions, we recognize it is both a privilege and an obligation to serve, not an entitlement.

Our National Goals: Working Toward Our Fraternity's Future

At its February 1999 meeting, the National Board of Directors adopted a Fraternity Vision and Mission Statement and a set of eight National Goals on which to focus our efforts over the next several years. Fortunately for us, the Board didn't have to start from scratch. The National Goals have been developed over the last ten years under the guidance and advice of National Conventions since 1988.

With the blessing of the 1998 National Convention, the National Board took the step of focusing our efforts on a smaller set of goals that are truly national in nature and significance. This focus will allow us to emphasize issues of prime importance to the National Fraternity as a whole as we prepare to enter the new millennium.

Anything worth doing, however, is worth doing right. The efforts that we are about to undertake will require a team effort on all our parts – the Chapters, our volunteers, the National Office, and individual members alike – to carry out our National Goals at all levels of the Fraternity. Our collective efforts will ensure that Alpha Phi Omega remains united in purpose, true in friendship, and everlasting in the faith of our Fraternity.

Mission Statement

*To strengthen the presence of Alpha Phi Omega
on college campuses and among its members;*

*To support the spread of the Fraternity's principles and activities
on college campuses and among its members;*

To provide opportunities for its members and college students to develop effective leadership skills;

To promote fellowship among all people;

To provide service to humanity; and

To further our acknowledged freedoms.

Vision Statement

Alpha Phi Omega will be the nation's foremost campus-based, inclusive, service-oriented, leadership development organization for university and college students by building upon its advantages and strengths as a unique and diverse Fraternity.

National Goals

Goal 1: By July 2000, the Fraternity will implement relevant new media and useful technology into Fraternity programs and operations in order to expand member/volunteer access to fraternity information.

Goal 2: By December 2000, the Fraternity will develop and implement a national public relations campaign to educate specific groups (such as university/college officials, other national organizations, etc.) about Alpha Phi Omega.

Goal 3: By December 2000, the Fraternity will celebrate the 75th Anniversary of its founding by sponsoring and conducting various projects, programs and events that give every Chapter and Brother opportunities to participate in the celebration. These activities will reaffirm the Fraternity's commitment to its founding principles and ideals which increase public awareness and understanding of Alpha Phi Omega and help to prepare our Fraternity for future growth and success.

Goal 4: By July 2000, the Fraternity will develop a comprehensive program to track recent and past alumni in order to identify and utilize them. Using this program, Alpha Phi Omega will increase its volunteer base by December 2002 by at least 25 percent over its December 1998 level.

Goal 5: By July 2002, the Fraternity will have at least 18,000 active members (AAMD + New Initiates) and a minimum of 375 chapters.

Goal 6: By August 2002, the Alpha Phi Omega Development Campaign will contribute 50 percent more in gross revenues than during the period ending August 31, 1998, and there will be 25 percent more current donors than existed on August 31, 1998.

Goal 7: By December 2004, the Alpha Phi Omega Endowment Fund should include at least five million dollars.

Goal 8: By July 2008, the Fraternity will establish five new chapters in Canada. These new chapters should be sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega (USA).
